
Your new Stretch Target and Expectations

Posted by wilsonengy - 2008/06/01 01:29

Business now is defined by more and more aggressive expectations -- make sure you don't lose life work balance.

Of course, what you read will excite you! Here is this person that made a million pesos in three years! here is a person who grew his business 20% a year the last 5 years. Here is a person who opened 5 branches in just one year!

This makes you as a potential entrepreneur crazy! Is it really that high a hurdle. How come I can't do it?

Well you know what! they are in the news because they are not the rule. They are an exception! That means they are one in a few thousand who were lucky enough to make it - just like the person who won the lotto!

but you cannot use them as your models because you will only be frustrated.

Try to undersatnd what you really want in life, and don't let crazy ambitions take you out from enjoying your business and your family.

There is more to living than making a living!
